

DOMAINE DES CELTIS

Grenache blanc

Regulated by the AOP Languedoc Pézenas appellation, Domaine des Celtis sits close to the namesake town Pézenas, also known as the habitat of Molière and where the ancient Languedoc government house was located. The Domaine was acquired and has become part of the Blanville family since 2018, adding to our range another series of beautiful terroir wines and furthering our effort in bringing out the diversity and complexity of the Languedoc terroir.

«Celtis» means hackberry trees in the Latin language. These majestic and luxuriant trees are the typicality of the Pézenas region, and especially widespread in the appellation of the same name.

Terroir: Clay and Limestone

Appellation: IGP Pays d'Oc

Comment by Andreas Larson :

«Pale transparent colour with a green hue. Youthful nose offering wild herbs, fennel, crushed apple and lemongrass. A sleek palate with good degree of freshness with fine extract giving a lift, white fleshed fruit flavours and a good length.»
