

BLANVILLE

Grande Réserve - Pinot Noir

Blanville is a family winery located in Saint-Pargoire, near Montpellier in Hérault (34).
Created in 1997 by Bernard and Béatrice Nivollet, they are currently handing over to their daughters and the Blanville team.
Specialized in parcel selection, BLANVILLE pays great attention to the choice of juices used for our range of collections.

Terroir: Rolled pebbles and clay-limestone

Appellation: IGP Pays d'Oc

Color: Red

Vintage: 2023

Alcohol: 13% Vol

Comment by Wine Enthusiast:

«This wine wants you to love it. Plump black cherry, raspberry and violet-scented cherry open on the nose and invigorate the senses. Chalky red fruit combines with tart acidity and slightly grippy tannins on the midpalate.»

Body: ●●●○○

Acidity: ●●●●○

Sweetness: ●○○○○

Tannins: ●●○○○

Length: ●●●○○

Lay down: 3 to 5 years after the vintage

Aromas / Flavors

Leather, spices, black fruits, violet

Wine Pairings

Delicatessen, fruit salad, roquefort

Wine Spectator

87/100 (2019)

EST 1878
ANTHONY GISONDI
ON WINE

88/100
16/20
(2021)

Jancis Robinson
JancisRobinson.com

16/20 (2023)
15/20 (2020)
15,5/20 (2018)

WINE ENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE

89/100 BEST
BUY (2023)

www.blanville.com // info@blanville.com // +33(0)4.67.25.22.53